

The spirit will not generate interest for you. This is thy decision, thy choice. Do not wait to be prompted otherwise...

For we are with thee in quietude and will not thrust ourselves upon thee unless thou art quiet and develop a pattern of listening...

We are here to serve, to serve one another. This is the core of our existence...

For the earth is in readiness and its people, with all those souls, would await a loving word that they might enjoin themselves in even momentary fragments of recognition.

Be aware of thine own desire to be aware, and do not fret about the intervention of the ego, but rather put that...aside when recognized and return as quickly as possible to the loving joy and serenity offered by the spirit. The spirit would offer all things, and one does not need to resort to the impoverished thinking and needed self aggrandizement of the ego activity. Thou knowest this, too. Make others aware of this distinction...

And we would speak no more for this day, but give thanks to (the) living Christ within. Amen.

Beautiful isn't it? While you will no doubt be receiving other information from me in the near future, I too would "speak no more for this day".

My Warmest Blessings to you all,
