

Forgiveness Prayers

- To anyone in any realm whom I have knowingly or unknowingly hurt, I pray your forgiveness.
- To anyone in any realm who thinks they may have hurt me, I forgive you.

To the following, I leave this gift at your doorstep, departing as I ring your doorbell, allowing you to choose if and when to open it:

- To you who feel maligned or misunderstood or abandoned or hurt to such a degree that you have cast yourself into oblivion, I pray Father's Peace and Loving embrace and the healing Grace of the Christ, so as you would receive it.
- To you who have committed acts you consider so heinous that you wander the Earth alone in body or discarnate, or who have gathered in realms of like-mind surrounding the Earth, and feel you cannot go on, in the name of Christ I forgive you.
- To the inhabitants of the shadows who have chosen the darkness over the Light because of your perceived wrongdoings, I forgive myself in your name. Won't you forgive yourself, step forward, and be released.
